

ANNUAL REPORT

Department of Educational Administration & Planning

Annual Report 2012

1. Introduction

The Department of Educational Administration and Planning is one of the Five (5) departments in the school of Education, College of Education External Studies. Its main mandate is to prepare educational Planners, Managers and Administrators. It also prepares Curriculum Developers, and has moved towards addressing issues of disasters through Education in Emergencies.

2. Courses Offered

The department offers Undergraduate, Master's and Doctoral Programmes in the areas of: Educational Management and Administration, Curriculum Studies, Educational Planning and Economics of Education.

Two new specializations were introduced at Masters Level, Education in Emergencies and Corporate Governance.

3. Student Enrollment at Post Graduate Level

A. M.Ed Students

Programme

Evening (part Time)	Regular (Full time)	School Based	Total
17	20	550	587

B. PhD Programme 70 students.

4. International Links and Collaborations

The department has a link with International Rescue Committee (IRC), a humanitarian organization. Through the project, the department has developed an innovative Masters Programme, 'Education in Emergencies.'

5. Publications for the year

Individual Lecturers have published as Follows

Author	Date	Title	Publisher	Place of Publication
Dr. Ursula Achieng	2011	Environmental Education: Headteachers' Instructional leadership in implementation	The Fountain	Nairobi
Dr. Grace Nyagah	2010	The Status of Drug Addiction Rehabilitation Programmes in Keya: A Case of Asumbi Treatment Centre.	The Fountain	Nairobi
Dr. Jeremiah Kalai	2010	Expansion of university education in Kenya: The twin Challenge of balancing access and quality- submitted to Kenya Institute of Management-Management	Digest Journal	Nairobi
Dr. Rosemary Imonje	2010	"The youth Polytechnic Programme in the context of the education system	VDM Publishing House	ISBN No. 78-3-639-31265-2

6. Consultancies and Research Activities

- Dr. Grace Nyagah; Evaluated the B.Ed Science Curriculum for Kenya Methodist University on behalf of the Commission for Higher Education.

- Dr. Ibrahim Khatete; Lead researcher (Rift Valley) during evaluation of School Infrastructure Implementation Projects in Primary Schools in Kenya – By Ministry of Education. 25th October – 6th November, 2010.

7. Number of Graduands

The number of graduands at Masters level increases tremendously from 113 the previous year (2011) to 169 in 2012. At PhD level, two candidates graduated.

8. Papers presented

- Dr. Grace Nyagah co-presented a paper with Dr. Loise Gichuhi and Dr. Mary Mendenhall, at Chicago, USA IN THE Comparative and International Society Conference (CIES); Innovation of Education in Emergencies Programme between University of Nairobi and an NGO International Rescue Committee (IRC).
- Dr. Ibrahim Khatete; Education Management Society of Kenya Workshop at Migori Teachers Training College 12th – 14th February, 2010, Paper Title: “Influence of Ban of Corporal punishment in the level of student discipline in secondary schools in Kenya.”
- Dr. Jeremiah Kalai; Education Management Society of Kenya Workshop at Migori Teachers Training College 12th – 14th February, 2010, Paper Title: “Determinants of Secondary School Head Teachers’ Management Practices and their Implications for in-service training in Kitui and Machakos Districts, Kenya.”

Other Activities

- Dr. Grace Nyagah attended the Management Development Workshop (MADEV III) IN Botswana for Senior Managers in the Universities; offered by the Association of
- African Universities (AAU). May 24th – 4th June 2010
- Dr. Grace Nyagah; Dr. Loise Gichuhi; Mrs. Rosemary Imonje and Ms. Caroline Ndirangu
- Attended the technical Workshop on Teacher Management for Sub-Saharan Africa, Nairobi; By the World Bank. February 17th -19th, 2010.
- The department, through the Educational in Emergencies project organized the following
- Field visit to Dadaab Refugee Camp for Three (3) members of the School. (11th-13th October 2010)
- A workshop on Sexual and Gender based Violence, where 15 members participated. 26th -30th July 2010.

